WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washnagton, D. C., Sept'r. 7, 1876-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle States southeast to southwest winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather, and falling, followed by rising barometer.

INTERNAL REVENUE CHANGES .- A change has been made in the arrangements consequent upon a consolidation of the Sixth and Seventh laternal Revenue districts of Virginia, as retofore reported in the Gazette. Mr. E. E White, of this city, who it was thought would be collector of the consolidated district, wil be transferred next week to Richmond, in page of Collector Russell, removed, and Mr. Bevery B. Botts, of Harrisonburg, formerly collector of the Sixth district, will be collector of the consolidated district, which will probably he known as the Sixth, and have his headquariers at Harrisonburg. It is probable that a deputy collector will be stationed at this city, in which and its vicinity, when all the liquor establishments, including distilleries, &c., are running, about $100,000 are annually paid to the Government as Internal Revenue. The old Seventh district will have as many officials as formerly, with the exception of the collector. As to whether any change will be made in the subordinates here nothing is yet positively known, although there will probably be some transfers, and possibly a few removals. By the transfer to the Richmond district Mr. White gains considerably in salary, that of his new rost being $4.500, while that he occupies at present is only about $3,000. During his residence here Mr. White has made many friends by his courteous manners and his strict attention to business, and will, no doubt, prove an acceptable officer in his new position.

SUPERINTENDENT OF GAS. -The late resignation of the Superintendent of Gas and the subsequent action of Council thereon, have been the current topic of conversation on the streets for the past few days. Many persons claim that the Council having accepted the resignanise, and thus created a vacancy, could not reconsider their action, except by going into joint convention and re-electing the present incumbeat. Others again assert the validity of the action of Council. Meantime should Mr. Nash continue to occupy the office until the second lussday in October he will probably lose the employment offered him elsewhere, to accept which he resigned his office. Should this prove to be the case, he would, of course, retain the omes, and no election take place. It is reporter that prominent lawyers, after examining the cuarter, are of opinion that that instrument provides no means for filling vacancies, and that consequently no election or appointment can take place until the next regular election, by the people. Altogether, the whole matter

They had with them the band of the lata Maryland Regiment and that fact gave less to a rumour that the regiment itself was on bari, and would land here. FOR THE ASYLUM .- City Sergeant Lucas and Mr. M. Schuler left here this morning for R channel having in charge Wm. Thompson,a clored anatic who has been lying in the jail here since last February, and who is now to be admitted to the Central Asslum. Thompson was very violent and had to be handcuffed and tied with ropes. Joseph Dabiels, white, and lugina Robinson, colored, are yet detained in John awating admission to the asylums. STOLEN MEAT.—Ben Blanheim, a notorious colored third, was overhauled on the streets at a very early hour Saturday morning, having in his his ession a shoulder of bacon which the Petice believed to be stolen. He was carried to the station house, but while the policemen were seeding the meat, he gave them the slip and made his escape, being a very swift runner. List night however he was caught by the offieers and louged in the station house, where the ment is held for identification.

Prize Fight.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 7.—The point chosen for the fight between Allen and Goss is in a after. clover field, near Walton, Ky., on the Louisville Short-line Railroad, eighteen miles from Cincinnati. A crowd of some five hundred persons is in attendance. Fears are entertained of interference by the militia. Goss took his place in the ring at 6:45, and Allen at 7 o'clock. The fighting begins at 7:35 a. m.

First round. Goss came to the middle of the ring first. Both men spar cautiously, Goss falling into Allen's corner. The sparring is rather tedious to the spectators. The first blood is declared for Allen. A clinch and a fall, with Goss on top, ends the first round.

Time, seven minutes. Second round. Allen strikes Goss on the lips and slightly staggers him. Goss has given Allen some heavy body blows. Goss is bleeding at the mouth. A fall for Alleo ends the round.

Third round. The fighting is close, Allen seeming to get the best of it. (At this point the militia appear, but the fighting goes on.) Fourth round The men exchange rapid and heavy blows. Allen delivers a terrible blow on Goss's neck, knocking him down. Time, three Fifth round. After considerable sparring Allen struck out, but fell short on Goss's face, and in return received a blow in the stomach. This did not appear to worry Allen, and he returned heavily on Goss's body, and got in a fearful blow on one of his damaged eyes. Goss retaliated to some purpose, and after a sharp fight at half arms-length Goss went down to avoid punishment.

Sixth round. Both men came promptly to the scratch, Allen leading off and getting in on Goss's face. He repeated this, getting in auother blow on Goss's damaged right eye. Allen finally fights Goss down.

Seventh round. When time was called for this round, the Covington Light Guards interfered, and the fight ceased.

Captain Frank Wood, with the Covington Light Guards, reached a point north of Walton at 7 o'clock this morning, having been carried past the fighting grounds by the conductor of the train. Capt. Wood and his company left the train three miles from the scene of the the fight and marched back, arriving on the ground at eight o'clock. Mr. W. G. Lobban, aid to the Governor, sent for Eph Holland and advised him to stop the fight immediately. Holland declared that he was a law abiding man, and opposed to bloodshed. He accordingly stopped the fight on the seventh round. Holland says he will make the men fight it out before they reach Cincinnati to night. Neither of them received much punishment. It should be remembered that the train bearing the milicia appeared during the third round, but by the time the militia got out of the cars and had marched back to the ring the men were engaged in the seventh round. CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.-A second ring has been formed for the resumption of the fight, and though its location cannot be definitely ascertained at this hour, it is evidently not many miles distant from the first one. At 10:45 a. m. the referee called the men to appear again in the ring.

Eighth round. There was a good deal of preiminary sparring. Goss got a good one in Allen's face. Allen got one in on Goss's cheek. Allen forced the fighting, and the round closed, with Allen punching Goss severely, but the latter threw him.

Ninth round. Goss forces the fighting and gets in some good work on Allen's breast and face. Allen finished the round for himself with heavy blows on Goss's face.

Tenth round. Heavy blows were exchanged; as sumittee to have some minor repairs made at length Goss clinched at his advantage, but in the struggle was forced down on the ropes when they were parted by the seconds. Eleventh round. A bet was offered and not taken of $100 to $75 in favor of Goss. Goss lead the fighting. The bardest fighting so far was in this round.

Twelfth round. Goss came up with both eyes badly swollen and black, Allen with his pounding showing little punisment in the face. Several blows by Allen in Goss's face won for him a knock down, and Goss showed a terrible bad head his left eye almost closed. Allen is aiming his blows at Goss's eyes.

Thirteenth round. Allen gave Goss a terrific blow on the mouth knocking him on his knees. Fourteenth round. In a clinch by Goss in which he threw Allen, a foul was claimed but not allowed. The fall was a terrible one for Allen. Fifteenth round. Very heavy, close fighting, Sixteenth round. In chasing Allen around the ring Goss slipped and fell. Seventeenth round. More close fighting and and both badly punished in the face.

knock down for Allen. Eighteenth round. Goss planted a stinger on Allen's body. Close fighting and Goss punished. Foul claimed by Goss' friends, but not allowed. Nineteenth round. Goss slipped and fell in close fighting. Another foul claimed by Goss'

Twentieth round. Both fell in close fighting. Twenty first round. In close fighting Goss fell and was struck by Allen while on his knees. A foul was claimed and allowed. The fight was decided in favor of Goss at 11:15

Atlen claims that as Goss was falling he tried to clinch him by the neck to prevent it. He further says that he knew he could whip Goss but knew he couldn't win this fight. Allen shows little or no injury about the face, while Goss is terribly beaten and almost blind. The time occupied in the fight was one hour and 52 minutes.

Riots.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 7.-The republican club of this city went to Stony Hollow yesterday to raise a pole. CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 7 .- A serious riot occurred late last night growing out of a street attack by colored Republicans upon some colored men who have been taking a conspicuous part in the canvass. A small body of whites endeavored to defend the Democratic negroes but were overpowered by the numbers of the rioters after a severe fight, in which pistols were freely used on both sides. The rioters held King street, the main thoroughfare, from midnight until sunrise, breaking windows, robbing stores and attacking and beating indiscriminately every white man who showed his face. A large number of persons were injured, mostly whites. Several of these shot are in a critical condition. Intense excitement pravails, the general feeling being that the trouble is not yet over. The riotous proceedings of the rice field strikers on the Combanee have been renewed and the situation is regarded as serious.

Mount Vernon Travel .- One effect of the influx to Washington of so many Centen oial visitors is to increase the number of visitors to Mount Vernoo. Every day now the rim little steamer Arrow goes down the river crowded with passengers, and her genial commander Captain Frank Hollingshead is, as he deserves, reaping a rich harvest. This morning the boat was so crowded that there was hardly standing room left.

RESUMPTION .- The caust boats Nutie and Billy and Nora and Willie arrived via Rock Creek, last night, to the Hamp, and Balt, Coal Company, the first arrivals since the resumption of shipments. It is understood that as soon as the Alexandria canal is open, which will probably be to-night or to morrow morning, this company will commence receiving regularly.

Special attention is called to the advertise ment of the enterprising coal firm of Eiward Clark & Co., of Washington, D. C. Having bought largely at the auction in New York at greatly reduced prices, they are offering our citizeus the benefit of their reduced scale of prices. They have made arrangements with he Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company to transport their teams with coal to our city. Messrs. We would advise our citizens to lay in their supply of coal early.
